

Gold Label Whey

Gold Label Whey is colostrum from Grade A dairies that is pooled, tested and processed into whey. This liquid bovine colostrum whey product gives added protection to the immune system when used orally with mother's milk.

Features & Benefits

- A liquid bovine colostrum whey.
- Use orally along with mother's colostrum.
- May be used any time as an aid to medications.
- Give 40 to 250 ml for foals. Repeat as needed.
- Refrigerate after bottle is open.
- Gives added protection to the immune system.
- Passive immunity.
- Lowers medication costs.
- Decreases morbidity and mortality.

Overview

Gold Label Whey is manufactured using the colostrum that is produced at Grade A dairies. It is then pooled, tested and processed into whey. Gold Label Whey gives supportive therapy to newborn animals and animals simply needed an immune boost from bioactive proteins. Gold Label Whey discourages the growth of E. Coli and Salmonella. It also reduces instances of scours and pneumonia and reduces inflammation related health problems. It should be used as a supportive therapy to drugs. It is all-natural so there is no withdrawal time.